

INSTRUCTIONS

The form below should to be used if you WANT to release your/your child's information to a third-party. Clients will sometimes release information to a doctor, attorney, another family member, or another third-party. If the client is a child or a minor, any parent/guardian has legal rights to the child's mental health therapy records. Also, you do not need to complete this release of information form to request a copy of your personal therapy records.

You only complete this form if you want to release medical records to someone else as explained above.
